GILBERT HART LIBRARY NEWS
by Wendy Savery

Fun with statistics: Since January, over 3,000 items have circulated from our collections! This includes 1,709 books, 431 books classified as "new," 111 audiobooks, 273 DVDs, and 159 materials acquired for patrons from other libraries around the state. Our circulation using Listen UP! Vermont for the same time period includes 275 ebooks and 319 audiobook downloads. And at least 107 of those checkouts were made by patrons under the age of 16!

As the summer days unwind, remember the library has passes to the VT State Historic sites and VT State Parks available for our patrons to check-out. We've also got audio books for listening on your road trip, and some great beach reads for when you reach your destination.

Staying here? Join us Friday, August 3, at the Wallingford Town Hall Theatre for a performance of Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream. The curtain goes up at 7 p.m. as Rutland Youth Theatre's traveling summer troupe take the stage for this free show.
