ARTICLE VIII. Wallingford Day has historically been a financially independent and separate activity from town government. The current group seeks planning and financial support thru the Town Recreation Committee. Therefore, the Selectboard has included funds in the currently proposed budget. This article is for the Selectboard to gather a sense of how townspeople feel concerning the town Recreation Committee taking on Wallingford Day. Do you favor use of taxpayer support and town management (Yes) or Wallingford Day remaining separate from town government and financing (No)?

211 YES
112 NO
